How to Search the Foundation Directory Online Online

1. Open www.ppld.org

2. Click on Research

3. Select Nonprofit
Click on Foundation Directory Online

Starting Search Suggestions: Use everyday language to search. The box shows a couple of examples. Stick with the state you are providing services in to keep your search broad. Once you hit search, the database will choose search terms and return results based on your criteria.

Here is an example for job training in libraries in Colorado. Click SEARCH to get results.
This is what your search result looks like. Under the Find Funding it says, Showing Results for “Job training, Public Libraries, Academic Libraries, Program support, Colorado”. Be sure to review these key terms used. If your results are too large, or a term doesn’t fit what you are interested in, click the X next to it and remove that term from your criteria. Review the Foundation Center Subject Term handout to review the key terms. Your results are divided into 4 categories, Grantmakers, Grants, Recipients and 990 Tax Forms. Each will display the type five results for your search criteria. To determine what potential foundation are available, you want to review the Grantmakers list by clicking the View All Button below Grantmakers.

VIEW ALL to see the first 100 Grantmakers
First 100 Search Results: Below is an example of your search results. It will only show you the first 100 at a time. It is sorted based on the number of grants the foundations have issued based on your search criteria. You can change the sort by clicking on any of the column headers. Example: Click on Grantmakers twice and it will sort from A-Z. Once you have the list sorted to your liking you can check the box next to Grantmakers, that will select the first 100 shown, then click on the envelop tool to the right. This will allow you to enter your contact information and then you can email the list to yourself.

HINTS:
* Be sure to only email the list, the profiles will be too large and will not go through.
* Check your junk folder for the email.
This is a view of what a typical record will look like. It continues to the next page. The top part where you see the bar graphs and the map is a quick at a glance view of what the foundation has funded over the past five years. If you click the VIEW button below each graph or map, you can expand this information to find more details. EXAMPLE: If you expand the map and then select Colorado a map of Colorado will appear showing where the money went by county.
HINT: Other Funders to Consider are six foundations who give in a similar style to the one whose record you are currently reviewing. The FDO recommendation is if this record is a good fit, then you should look at these six rather than go back to the original search result.

HINT: Always confirm deadlines and submission requirements with the information provided on the foundation’s webpage.

HINT: It is considered best practice to contact the foundation before committing anything in writing. Giving limitations, deadlines, funding priorities can always change and sometime the record isn’t updated to reflect the change.

This is an example of the Advanced Search and Filters screen. Notice the drop down box when you click in the Subject Area. This is where you will find the keyword tree contained in the Subject Term Guide that follows. If there is a “˅” after a term, then that term branches out into narrower terms. EXAMPLE: You can select Arts and Culture, and it will search all of Arts and Culture, or you can click on that “˅” and select Folk Arts.

HINT: To decrease the number of results set the grant years from 2010 to 2019, or shorter.

CITY SEARCH: If narrowing the Geographic Focus begin to type the city name and then select the appropriate city.

SPECIFIC FOUNDATION SEARCH: Click in the Organization Name box and begin typing the name of the foundation you are looking for. Be sure to pay attention to whether it is their grantee or recipient record.
Foundation Center’s Subject Terms

Subject terms describe WHAT is being supported and refer to grantmakers’ area(s) of focus, the primary work of the nonprofit, or the program/activity/service being funded. In Foundation Directory Online, the subject terms are included in “Fields of Interest” in Search Grantmakers and “Subjects” in Search Grants.
